15th International Carbine Club Congress – Adelaide October 2022

The CCSA Congress Organising Committee have advised that at present there are insufficient registrations to make the October 2022 Congress financially viable.

Congress Chairman Lloyd Meredith has advised that the date for registrations has been extended to 31st March. If insufficient registrations are received by this date then unfortunately the Congress will have to be cancelled. If it becomes necessary to cancel, then all deposits will be refunded in full.

Lloyd and the Organising Committee are hopeful that the hard work already put into this event will result in yet another great Congress – it is a wonderful program and countless hours have been invested to ensure a memorable event. A registration form is attached below.

The Carbine Club of Tasmania – Racing Carnival Luncheon

Two hundred members and guests turned out for the Carbine Club of Tasmania's Racing Luncheon at Elwick Racecourse on 11 Feb which was held in conjunction with the Tasmanian Racing Club's (TRC) Derby Day twilight race meeting featuring the Carbine Club Handicap amongst the racing offering on what was a glorious Tassie summer's day, complemented by the venue and hospitality of the TRC which is headed up by CEO and Carbine Club Member Brendan Blomeley.

Guest speaker and recently retired jockey Glenn Boss promised at the outset that he would be brief and everyone present was glad that he really didn't live up to that promise as he described his racing journey; Glenn's emotive descriptions of the turf greats had the guests enthralled and later he passed his 3 Melbourne Cups won on the champ Makybe Diva around the crowd, mingling with all, gladly answering questions, and being the subject of a great number of "selfies".

The Carbine Club 3YO Handicap was Race 5 on the card following the lunch and CCTAS President Steve Adermann continued his annual tradition of tipping the likely winner of the race – Steve exercised no caution in tipping favourite Turk Warrior to win, and his judgement proved correct later in the day as that horse duly saluted at odds described as 'better than bank interest' (but then, any odds are better than today's bank interest!).

Members dug deeply at the urging of Club Member and auctioneer extraordinaire Andrew "Flapper" Wright raising a hefty sum from 3 superb auction items and together with proceeds from the well supported raffle on the day, the Club's ability to continue its support for sport and in particular junior sport was greatly enhanced.

Carbine Club of SA – Members Awards at the Australian Hotels Association

The Carbine Club of South Australia has long held ties with the hospitality industry – long term Carbine Club member Peter Hurley is a life member of both the Australian Hotels Association (AHA) of South Australia and the National AHA.

The tradition continues and recently at the AHA National Awards for Excellence Presentation in Hobart two more CCSA members were honoured:

CCSA member Darren Steele (pictured left) is General Manager of operations for EDP Hotel Group, and their entire team won the National AHA Award for Best Regional Venue Award for the Bridgeport Hotel at Murray Bridge. This hotel is described as a superb development for the regional area and the award is recognition of the Group's vision and significant investment to build and create a sensational hospitality venue.

And CCSA member Greg Fahey received Hall of Fame Status, this was decided in 2020 but due to COVID was presented to Greg at the awards in Hobart. Greg and his family have been involved in the hotel industry for decades and he has made a very strong contribution to the hospitality industry.

The Carbine Club is pleased to announce a fundraising golf day at the exclusive Cathedral Lodge & Golf Club. All funds raised on the day will go to the Victorian Institute of Sport together with Disability Sport & Recreation, to assist their vital work in supporting extraordinary athletes.

The Greg Norman designed, 18-hole private course is one of the most picturesque in the country with the Cathedral Mountain Range as a backdrop. This 'Top 100' course was inspired by a vision to create something truly unique in Australian golf.

This promises to be a great day out, sharing the camaraderie of The Carbine Club over golf and the conviviality of a gourmet lunch and silent auction held in the clubhouse.

The field will be limited to 40 players, comprised of Carbine Club members and guests. Carts will be provided. All participants must be fully vaccinated.

Keen golfers will not want to miss this opportunity.
